CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the seller cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above Five Pounds, 2s. 6d. and so on in proportion.

III. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode and to pay down 5s. in the Pound, if required, in part of payment of the Purchase-money; in default of which, the Lot or Lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

IV. The Sale of any lot is not to be set a side on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.

V. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's expence, immediately after the conclusion of the Sale; in default of which, Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON, and HODGE, will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser. If at the expiration of TWO DAYS after the conclusion of the Sale, the Lots are not cleared or paid for they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON and HODGE, will have the option of re-selling the Lots uncleared either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VI. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required or deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

170 Obv. similar type, rev. VVLFRED., fine 1

171 Halfpenny, obv. ELFRED. REX., a cross in the centre; rev. EDILCADI. in two lines across the field, divided by crosses and pellets, differs from Num. Chron. vol. V, pl. 3, n. 30, very fine, and of great rarity. From the Martin, and Murchison Cabinets 1

172 Another, blundered, exactly like the woodcut at the foot of p. 102 of vol. V of the Num Chron., and n. 5 of pl. 6, vol. X, New Series, rery rare 1

EDWARD THE ELDER.

174 Obv. +EADVVEARD. REX., but beginning at the bottom, Bust to the left; rev. CVDBERHTO. in two lines, extremely fine and rare 1

175 Obv. +EADVVEARD. REX., beginning at the top, Bust to the left, but quite different, and more like that of Edward the Martyr, R. pl. 16, n. 2; rev. GAEALD. MON. in two lines, fine and very rare. From the Devonshire, and Cuff Collections 1

176 Obv. + EADVVEARD REX., a small Cross in the field, rev. HEREMOD. across the field, surmounted by a Flower, a line with a star at each and separates the name from the flowers, and a similar star is at the bottom, R. pl. 16, n. 9, very fine, and of the greatest rarity. From the Devonshire, Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

177 Obv. as the last, rev. BV. GA. within the curves of a florid ornament, n. 10, fine, and as rare as the last. From the Devonshire, Dymock, and Murchison Cabinets 1

178 Obv. as the last, rev. VVLFSIGE at the sides of a building like the Tower, or front of a church, n. 17, very rare and remarkably fine. From the Loscombe Collection 1

 The letters on this coin are much smaller than usual on the coins of Edward the Elder. 1

179 Obv. as before, rev. a different building, at the side EADVMND., n. 18, fine and rare. From the Cuff Cabinet 1

180* Obv. as before, rev. VVLFGAR. under a building, evidently a church, showing the nave, side aisles and tower, n. 22, a beautiful coin, and the type of extreme rarity. From the Dimsdale, Durrant, and Wigan Cabinets 1

181 Obv. as before, rev. VBERHTO. in a single line across the field, n. 24, very fine and extra rare. From the Devonshire, and Cuff Collections 1

182 Obv. as before, rev. ALFSTAN. MO. surrounding an armed Hand reaching from the clouds, n. 26, very fine and rare 1

 It is doubtful whether any other specimen of this and the next coin are known in a private collection.

183 Obv. as before, DX. DEORMOD. M. at the sides of a Hand reaching from the clouds, in the act of benediction, n. 27, in beautiful condition, and of the highest rarity 1

184 Obv. +EAD. VVEARD. REXSAX. ONVM., in four lines across the field, rev. B. A. (Bath) across the field, a cross and two pellets above and below 1

 There is a slight chip at the side, but it is otherwise fine, Num. Chron. N. S. vol. X, pl. 6, n. 10, engraved from this coin. The legend is more perfect than on the only other known specimen engraved in the Num. Chron. vol. V, pl. 3, n. 33. From the Cuff, Dymock, and Murchison Cabinets. It is the earliest coin from the Bath mint.

185 Obv. +EADVVEARD. REX. in the centre a Cross, rev. VVLFHEARD. MO. in two lines, R. pl. 17, n. 29, remarkably fine 1

186 Obv. and rev. similar, moneyer, VALTER. EO. (York); it has been struck on an earlier coin, very fine 1

187 Obv. and rev. similar, DEORVVALD. MO., very fine 1

188 Obv. +EADVVEARD. REX., rev. VVNBERHT., a similar type, but of very different work, resembling some of the coins of Alfred of the same type, found at Cuerdale, and therefore probably the earliest coinage of Edward the Elder, fine and extremely rare 1

ÆTHELSTAN.

189 Obv. +ÆÐELSTAN. REX., helmeted and crowned Head to the left, within the inner circle, different from any in R. or H.., but cf. R. pl. 17, n. 1, and H. n. 174, rev. +VIARD+ MONETA., a cross Crosslet, H. n. 174, fine, and of extreme rarity. From the Devonshire, Martin, and Murchison Sales 1

190 Obv. +ÆÐELSTARX., helmeted Head to the right, the bust extends to the edge of the coin, rev. + GIS. MONETA., a cross Crosslet, R. pl. 17, n. 3, nearly equally rare with the last, and very fine. From the Collections of the Dean of St. Patrick, Dymock, and Murchison 1

191 Obv. +ÐELSTAN. REX., an entirely different Bust, with pearls on the top of a cap or crown, rev. BERHARHDEON., perhaps struck at York, R. pl. 17, n. 6, most highly preserved, and a very rare type. From the Devonshire, and Dymock Cabinets 1

192 Obv. +ÆÐELSTAN. REX., crowned Bust to the right, rev. +HRODCAR. MO. NORVIC. (Norwich), a Cross in the centre, R. pl. 17, n. 9, extremely fine and rare 1

201 Obv. +EADMVND. REX., Bust to the right, rev. +NRODEAR. MO. NORVC. (Norwich), in the centre a small Cross, R. pl. 18, n. 2, fine and rare 1

202 Obv. as the last, but the head smaller and in lower relief, rev. +HANEN. MO. NORDVC. (Norwich), in the centre a small Cross, fine and rare 1

203 Obv. title as the last, rev. DORVLF. MO. and DRMODE. M., as n. 4; and one reading EADMVND. RET., rev. VIGEARD. N., as n. 10, all fine 3

205 Obv. as the last, rev. EOFERMVND. MO. in two lines divided by three small crosses, an ornament above and below, appears to differ from any published, fine and rare 1

EADRED.

206 Obv. +EADRED. REX., Bust to the right, the lines appear to represent armour, rev. +VALTER. MONETA., in the centre a cross, R. pl. 19, n. 3, rare and remarkably fine 1

207 Obv. as before, but the Bust is draped, rev. +REINFERTH. MONETA., fine and rare 1

208 Obv. title as before, but no portrait, rev. AGTARDES. MOT. DYRMOD M., n. 5; EADMVND. M. n. 8, all fine 3

209 Obv. as the last, rev. MANIN. MO., n. 9; and one obv. +EADRED. REXA., rev. INGELGAR. MO., identical with the reverses of the coins of Anlaf and Eric, pl. 11, n. 6 and 3, both fine 2

210 Obv. without Portrait, +EADRED. REX. OX. VRBIS., rev. VYNNELM. MO., an extremely rare and fine piece, of the Oxford Mint—Lindsay, Rom. Coins, pl. 2, n. 15 1

EADWIG.

211 Obv. +EADVVIG. REX., in the centre a Cross; rev. BALDVINE. BDA. (Bedford) in three lines, nearly like R. pl. 20, n. 2, fine and rare 1

212 Obv. and rev. same type, but has annulets at the beginning and end of last line of rev. MANED. M. HAN. (Southampton), rare and fine, but slightly broken at the edge 1

213 Obv. type as before, but two crosses in the centre, rev. ABENET. HER. (Hertford?). From the Durrant Cabinet, extremely fine 1

214 Obv. as before, but a V. instead of VV., and a cross and the letter M. in the centre, rev. BERENARD. MOT., R. pl. 20, n. 8, very fine 1

215 Obv. as before, rev. HEREMOD. MO. in two lines as n. 4, fine 1

216 Obv. +EADVVIG. REX., in the centre a small cross, rev. +ÆÐELGAR. MO. round the coin instead of across it, in the centre a small cross. Engraved from this coin in Lindsay's Coinage of the Heptarchy, pl 5. n. 115, fine, and of great rarity. It is believed that this and the following lot are the only specimens known 1

217 Obv. as the preceding, rev. +ÆLFSIGE. MONE., round the coin as before, but in the centre a rosette of several pellets, fine, and as rare as the last 1

218 Obv. +EADVVIG. REX., in the centre a rosette, rev. GRIM. between two lines across the field, R. pl. 20, n. 9, very fine and a type of great rarity 1

 From the Devonshire, Dymock, and Murchison Collections. In the description of the plates in Ruding, this coin is stated to have been engraved from that in the Devonshire Cabinet. If so, a cross has been erroneously substituted for the rosette on the obverse.

8 - 12 - 544 Pattern for Half Sovereign of 3rd year, Profile crowned, to the right, with large bust in armour, rev. oval Shield of Arms crowned, ER. at the sides; the King's titles on both sides, m. m. bow, wt. 84½ grs., engraved from this coin in the Num. Chronicle, vol. XX, n. 187, only one other known. From the Murchison Cabinet 1 Johnson

546 Half Sovereign of his third year, with bare Head, obv. SCVTVM. FIDEI. PROTEGET. EVM., rev. crowned Shield of Arms, with ER. at sides, titles of the King for legend m. m. arrow, R. pl. 7, n. 8, fine 1

547 Quarter Sovereign of same type, but m. m. Y., n. 9, well preserved and rare 1

548 Eighth of the Sovereign of same type, except that there are no initials at the sides of the shield, m. m. an arrow, n. 10, highly preserved, and one of the rarest of this king's coins 1

549 Half Sovereign, obv. the Head crowned, with titles, rev. Shield of Arms, with ER. at the sides, SCVTVM., &c., m.m. an arrow, n. 4, fine 1

550 Quarter Sovereign of same type, but m. m. Y., n. 5, fine and rare. From the Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

551 Eighth of the Sovereign of same type, but without the letters at the sides of the shield, m. m. arrow, n. 6, very fine and extremely rare. From the Russell, and Murchison Cabinets 1

552 DOUBLE SOVEREIGN of his fourth year, obv. the King in his robes seated on his throne, with a portcullis at his feet, a sceptre in his right hand, and the orb in his left, rev. Shield of Arms in the middle of a double rose, m. m. a dragon's head, wt. 476 grs., pl. 8, n. 1, taken from this specimen when in the Hollis Cabinet, one of the rarest pieces in the English series, and in very fine condition 1

 This coin was sold in the Hollis Collection (lot 336) to Mr. Willett for £99., and when his cabinet was broken up, was bought privately by the late Mr. Christopher Edmonds. It is believed that there is only one other specimen in any private collection, namely, that purchased for the late Lord Hastings at Mr. Cuff's sale, which came from the Cabinet of the Duke of Devonshire.

553 Sovereign of his sixth year, obv. the King, three-quarter length, in armour, with a sword in his right hand, and the orb in his left, rev. crowned Shield of Arms, supported by a lion and a dragon, below ER., m.m. Y., pl. 8, n. 6, extremely fine 1

Silver Coinage. Tower Mint.

660 Crown, obv. the King on horseback, with sword, in the attitude of striking, and rev. Arms in a garnished square Shield, m. m. lis, R. pl. 18, n. 1, fine 1

661 Crown, type as the last, but the shield is surmounted by a plume of feathers, m. m. castle, H. 473, fine and rare 1

662 Crown, the figure of the King small, his sword resting on his shoulder; rev. Arms in an oval garnished shield, C.R. above, m. m. harp, H. 474, extremely fine 1

 This, and lots 663, 665, and 666, were formerly in the Tyssen Cabinet.

663 Crown, type as the last, but with plume over the shield, m. m. plume, R. pl. 18, n. 2, extremely fine 1

664 Crown, the Horse and figure of the King larger, sword erect; rev. Arms in an oval garnished shield, m. m. anchor, H. 475, except that there is no plume over the shield, extremely fine 1

665 Crown, type similar to the last, but m.m. bell, exceedingly fine 1

666 Crown, type similar to the last two, but with plumes above the shield, m. m. portcullis, extremely fine 1

667 Crown, small figure of the King, with the horse foreshortened; rev. oval Shield, as on the last, sun m. m., H. 476, fine. From the Durrant Cabinet 1

668 Another, of same type and m.m., but the figures of the King and the horse are larger and of much finer execution, H. 477, fine and scarce 1

 This coin is thought to be an early work of Thomas Simon.

669 Half Crown, same type as the first Crown, m.m. lis, R. pl. 19, n. 1, except that this has a line under the horse, extremely fine. From the Durrant, and Martin Cabinets 1

670 Another of same type, no line under the horse; rev. square Shield, not showing the floriated ends of the cross as on the last, m. m. a long cross, fine and rare 1

671 Another, obv. type like the Crown, harp m. m., the sword resting on his shoulder; rev. Arms in an oval garnished shield, with C. R. at the side, m.m. harp, extremely fine. From the Durrant Collection 1

 This coin has evidently been struck in a collar, and has the appearance of being a proof. 1

672 Another, the sword is held upright, the horse is short and thick; rev. Arms in a round garnished shield, m. m. R. in a circle, type of H. 484, but believed to be unpublished as to m.m., a fine round coin, and very rare 1

673 Another, the figures of the King and horse of good work; rev. as before, m. m. a mullet, or star of six points, R. pl. 19, n. 6, fine 1

674 Shilling of first coinage, bust of the King, with ruff and collar of the garter, m. m. lis, pl. 19, n. 7, unusually fine; Sixpence of same mintage, 1625 2

675 Shilling, with ruff, and square shield, m. m. castle, fine 1

676 Shilling of same type, but with plume above the shield, m. m. heart, H. 512, extremely fine, and struck in a collar as if for a proof

677 Shilling, Bust with ruff, rev. oval garnished Shield, surmounted by plume, m. m. plume, H. 513, a very large spread coin in the finest state of preservation, looks like a proof. From the Durrant Cabinet 1

678 Shilling, Bust with falling hands, rev. oval garnished Shield, m. m. harp, R. pl. 19, n. 12, exceedingly fine, struck in a collar, and a beautiful and rare proof. From the same Collection 1

679 Another of same type, but without inner circle on either side, m. m. portcullis, extremely fine, a proof. From the Tyssen, Edmonds, Durrant, Dymock, and Murchison Cabinets 1

680 Another of same type as the last, but the shield is smaller and is surmounted by the plume, m. m. bell, extremely fine, and apparently a proof. From the Pembroke Cabinet 1

681 Shilling, different Bust, rev. Arms on a plain square shield on a cross extending to the inner circle, m. m. anchor, R. pl. 19, n. 10, extremely fine. From the Dimsdale, and Durrant Cabinets 1

682 Another, very similar, but more like H. n. 517, m. m. sceptre; this coin however is perfectly round, very fully spread, and in high preservation, probably unique in this condition. From the Cuff Cabinet 1

683 Shilling, the Head much larger and broader, rev. as the two last, m. m. P. within brackets, R. pl. 20, n. 12, but this specimen is perfectly round and fully spread, and in the most desirable condition. From the Cuff Collection 1

 In the Dimsdale Catalogue, Young remarks, that this piece is rarely to be seen in a high state of preservation.

684 Sixpence, obv. R. pl. 20, n. 1, rev. as n. 8, plume m. m.; Twopence, same type and m. m.; Twopence, Penny, and Halfpenny, obv. and rev. a Rose, n. 4, 5, 7, all fine 5

685 Sixpence, m. m. harp, n. 6; Twopence, m. m. P. in brackets; Penny, the first two extremely fine 3

686 Sixpence, m. m. anchor, n. 2; Twopences, m. m. portcullis, n. 10, star and bull, with and without inner circle; Penny, and Halfpenny, some fine 6

Briot's Mint.

687 Crown, the King on horseback, m. m. anemone flower and B., rev. Arms in an oval garnished shield, C.R. crowned at the sides, m. m. B., R. pl. 21, n. 10, very fine From the Dimsdale, and Durrant Collections 1

688 Half Crown of same type, also very fine. From the Henderson, and Durrant Cabinets 1

689 Half Crown of similar type, but with m. m. anchor and B., extremely fine 1

690 Half Crown, obv. very like that of the coin in the last lot but one, m. m. anemone flower and B., rev. Arms in a square-topped shield, with the arms of Scotland in the first quarter. QVÆ. DEVS., &c., m. m. thistle, R. pl. 41, n. 6, extremely fine 1

691 Shilling and Sixpence, obv. m. m. anemone flower and B., rev. B. only, nos. 12 and 13, both fine 2

692 Shilling and Sixpence, m. m. anchor, pl. 22, nn. 8 and 9, fine 2

693 Half Groat, and Penny, nos. 12 and 13, both very fine 2

694 Crown, obv. of similar type to that in lot 664, but m. m. thistle and B., rev. Arms in a square-topped shield, with Arms of Scotland in first quarter, QVÆ. DEVS., &c., m. m. thistle and B., R. pl. 41, n. 5, fine and rare 1

695 Half Crown like the last, but leaved thistle m. m. on obv. fine 1

696 Shilling and Sixpence, arms of Scotland in first quarter, QVÆ. DEVS., &c. pl. 41, nn. 7 and 10, the shilling very fine 2

697 Shilling and Sixpence of same types, nn. 8 and 10, both very fine 2

698 Shilling, n. 9, Bust within the inner circle, m. m. a leaved thistle, very fine 1

Aberystwith Mint.

 This coin is of larger spread and lower relief than the usual type.

700 Shilling and Sixpence, nn. 15 and 16, both very fine, especially the sixpence 2

701 Sixpences, one as in the last lot, but with the inner circle; the other with crown m. m., scarce; Groat, with crown m. m., and a Penny 4

702 Groat, Threepence, Twopence, Penny, and Halfpenny, all with open book m. m., nos. 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, all very fine 5

703 Twopences, with and without inner circle; and a Penny with head like that on the Oxford Penny 3

704 Twopence, rev. date 1646, at the sides of the plume on reverse, fine and rare 1

Bristol Mint.

705 Half Crown, obv. the King on horseback, BR. in monogram under the horse, m. m. plume, rev. the Oxford type, REI. PROT., &c., date 1644, with BR. below, R. pl. 24, n. 2, very fine. From Mr. Bentham's Cabinet 1

706 Shilling, obv. Bust with small plume in front, m. m. pellet with four dots, rev. Oxford type, with BR. in monogram under the date 1644, n. 3; Sixpence of same type, but the BR. is placed on the rev. as m. m., both very fine 2

707 Shilling, same type and date as in the last lot, but the BR. is the m. m. on reverse, instead of below the date; Groat, 1644, BR. below, unusually fine 2

708 Half Groat of same type, but without date, rev. RE. PR. LE. AN. LI. PA. in three lines, BR. below, very fine and rare 1

Chester Mint.

709 Half Crown, the King on horseback, plume at his back, CHST. under the horse, rev. Arms in a round garnished shield, m. m. on each side, three gerbs, the arms of Chester, R. pl. 26, n. 2, very fine and rare 1

 From the Cuff Collection, and perhaps the best known.

CHARLES I. Exeter Mint.

710 Crown, obv. the King on horseback, face in profile; rev. oval garnished Shield, m. m. rose, H. 478, fine 1

711 Crown, obv. the King on horseback, with nearly front face; rev. round garnished Shield, date 1645, m. m. castle, H. 480, very fine, and showing the face and figure of the King quite distinctly, which is scarcely ever the case with this coin 1

712 Half Crown, obv. the King, full face, with a truncheon in his right hand; the horse is curvetting among a heap of arms; rev. a round garnished Shield, with four tassels on each side, date 1642 in a small compartment below, m. m. rose, very rare, fully spread and highly preserved 1

 This rare and beautiful coin, believed to be the best known, was formerly in the Trattle, and Durrant Collections. In consequence of the chronological difficulty involved in the date of this Half Crown, and of the great superiority of its execution to that of the acknowledged Exeter coins, doubts have been entertained whether it really belongs to that mint, and accordingly, in the Durrant Catalogue, it was classed (lot 677) among the pieces of uncertain mintage. But in the 'Numismatic Chronicle,' vol. XII, p. 62, there is a paper showing that it really belongs to the mint of Exeter.

713 Half Crown, obv. like the last, but the King has a sword, and there are no arms under the horse; rev. Shield of the form of a parallelogram, with rounded top and bottom; at the sides, C. R., m. m. rose, H. 488, fine, and of extreme rarity 1

 This piece was formerly in the Dimsdale Cabinet, lot 1150. We are not aware of any other specimen but that engraved in Hawkins, which is in the Museum Collection, and is less perfect than the present one.

714 Half Crown, King with face in profile, as in the first Crown; rev. as the Half Crown in the last lot, m. m. rose, fine and rare 1

715 Another, very similar, but the King's face is nearly full, and the horse shows both eyes, as on the Exeter Half Crowns of the usual type, fine, but not perfectly struck, believed to be unpublished 1

716 Another, obv. the King, nearly full faced; rev. round garnished Shield, date 1644, rose m. m. on both sides, H. 489, fine and scarce 1

717 Another of similar type, m. m. rose; rev. Castle, and date 1645, R. pl. 25, n. 5, very fine and scarce 1

718 Another, the figure of the King with face in profile, the sword leaning forward, apparently from the punch of the later Oxford Half Crowns; rev. oval garnished Shield, rose m. m. on both sides, Snelling, pl. 13, n. 10, and n. 10 of Hawkins's Hist. at p. 173; bnt this differs in having no date, well preserved, and unpublished 1

719 Shilling, obv. crowned Bust; rev. round garnished Shield, rose m. m. on both sides, R. pl. 25, n. 6; but the date is 1645. Sixpence of same type, date 1644, n. 7; both fine 2

720 Groat of same type, date 1644 on obverse. Threepence, square-topped shield, date 1644 above, nn. 8 and 9, both remarkably fine 2

721 Twopence, rev. a full-blown Rose, 1644, rose m. m., n. 10, very fine and rare 1

722 Penny of same type and date, n. 12, fine and rare 1

Oxford Mint.

723 Twenty-shilling Piece, obv. the King riding over a heap of arms, a plume behind, m. m. plume; rev. EXVRGAT., &c. and inscription, RELIG. PROT., &c. in two lines across the field, date 1643, R. pl. 23, n. 1, fine 1

724 Twenty-shilling Piece, type as the last, but the obverse is of fine work, as n. 3; rev. exactly like the last, date 1643, very fine and rare. From the Collections of Christopher Edmonds, and Capt. Murchison 1

725 Twenty-shilling Piece, obv. very like the last, but of even better work; rev. the same legend in smaller letters, RELIG. PROT., &c. within a compartment, surmounted by a lion's head, xx, and a single plume; below, 1644. ox., a beautiful specimen of this rare and magnificent coin. From the Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

726 Ten-shilling Piece, similar type, obv. of fine work, no ground under the horse; rev. legends as before, x under three plumes, m. m. on each side, nine pellets, Snelling, pl. 12, n. 13, from which however this specimen differs in some particulars; very fine, and extremely rare. From the Dimsdale, Thomas, Dymock, and Murchison Cabinets 1

727 Ten Shilling Piece, the King on horseback, with arms on the ground under the horse, no plume behind; rev. x and three plumes, legends as before, date 1642, fine and scarce 1

728 Another, very similar, but there is a plume behind the King, fine 1

729 Another, but date 1643, R. pl. 23, n. 4, well preserved 1

730 Crown, of similar type, but no arms under the horse, date 1642, n. 5, fine 5

731 Another, very similar, but date 1643, n. 6, extremely fine 1

732 Half Crowns, of similar type, dated 1642 and 1643, the former has a line under the horse, the other has it not, Snelling, pl. 12, nos. 1 and 2, both fine 2

733 Another, the figure of the King smaller, the sword sloping forward, ground under the horse; rev. as the second Half Crown in the last lot, date 1643, without ox., fine 1

 This variety having the small figure of the King, without ox. under the date, is unpublished, and perhaps unique. It is a connecting link between those which precede and the following.

734 Another, general type, like the last, with date 1643 and ox. underneath; the centre plume on the reverse is very large, extremely fine and rare in this condition. From the Durrant Cabinet 1

735 Another, very similar, but date 1644. ox.; the words of the legend separated by small squares, and there is also one before and after the date and ox., fine, and an unpublished variety 1

736 Another, very similar, but date 1646. ox., remarkably fine 1

737 Shilling, obv. the King's bust to the left; rev. EXVRGAT., &c., with inscription, RELIG., &c., in three lines, two pellets between the words, date 1643, m. m. plume on obverse only, fine and rare 1

738 Another, very similar, but date 1644, the figures curved, lozenges instead of pellets between the words, n. 6 of Hawkins's Hist. p. 185, fine and rare 1

739 Another, bust very similar; rev. EXVRGAT., &c. in three lines, a rose and two lozenges before exurgat; above, three plumes with rose at each side; below, 1644. ox., with lozenges at sides; perfectly round; a beautiful coin, looking like a pattern, and extremely rare. From the Currer, and Murchison Cabinets 1

740 Sixpence, m. m. on obv. open book, 1642, R. pl. 24, n. 5; Groat, 1644. ox., H. 536, extremely fine 2

741 Sixpence, same type, 1643, extremely fine; Groats, bust extending to the edge of the coin, 1645, one has R. under the bust, and the inscription RELIG., &c. in a compartment, H. nos. 537 and 538, both scarce 3

742 Groat, like the last in the preceding lot, but dated 1646, Snelling, pl. 11, n. 15, fine and rare 1

743 Threepence, H. 542, but the date is 1644; Twopence, 1644. ox., well preserved and rare 2

WORCESTER MINT.

744 Half Crown of usual type, rev. oval Shield of Arms, garnished, m. m. on each side, three pears, extremely fine. From the Devonshire, and Cuff Cabinets 1

YORK MINT.

745 Half Crown, obv. the King on horseback; under the horse's feet, EBOR.; rev. oval Shield of Arms, crowned and garnished, displayed upon the skin of a lion, m. m. lion, H. 498, very fine and rare in this state 1

746 Others, obv. nearly as before; rev. oval Shield, crowned, but without the lion's skin; at the sides, C. R., crowned; the words of legend on reverse are separated by a flower, which is different in the two specimens, m. m. lion, H. 497, both very fine 2

747 Two others, one of same type as those in the last lot, but the flower still different, extremely fine; the other has a plain square-topped shield, crowned, H. 496, fine 2

748 Another; the horse is smaller, and of inferior work, a line underneath, with grass; rev. a square-topped shield, not crowned, with slight garniture; lion m. m., H. 495, extremely fine, and a very rare type. From the Dimsdale, and Durrant Cabinets 1

749 Another, obv. as the last; rev. Arms in a round garnished shield, not crowned, m. m. lion, Snelling, pl. 10, n. 18, extremely fine, and a type equally rare with the last. From the Dimsdale, Durrant, Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

750 Shilling, obv. the King's bust; rev. square-topped Shield of Arms, EBOR. above. Sixpence, oval Shield, crowned, C. R. at the sides. Threepence, type as the Shilling, all m. m. lion, Snelling, pl. 10, nos. 13, 12, and 10, all fine 3

751 Shilling, obv. as the last; rev. round garnished Shield, crowned, EBOR. below, R. pl. 21, n. 5, extremely fine. From the Durrant Cabinet 1

752 Another, very similar, but the shield is not crowned, n. 6, most highly preserved. From the same Collection 1

753 Another, with crowned Shield of Arms on the skin of a lion, EBOR. below, H. 527, very fine. From the same Collection 1

UNCERTAIN MINTS.

The following is a remarkably fine Selection of these curious Pieces.

754 Half Crown, obv the King on horseback, rudely imitated from the York Half Crown, H. 497; rev. oval Shield of Arms, with draped garniture; the words of the rev. legend separated by fleurs-de-lis, no m. m., n. 7 of Hawkins's Hist. page 177, fine 1

755 Another, very similar, but the words are separated by roses, appears to be unpublished, very fine and rare 1

756 Another, the figure of the King, apparently copied from the Half Crowns in lots 745 and 746; rev. as the last, but the words are separated by a large mullet, H. 500, very fine 1

From the Oxnock Sale £1-10

£ 4-2 757 Another, the figure as in the last lot but one, the letter w. and grass under the horse; rev. square-topped Shield, crowned, m. m. helmet, H. 501, fine and rare 1

4-2- 758 Another, nearly similar, fine 1

4-4- 759 Another, obverse very similar to the last two, but reverse of the Oxford type, 1644, fine, and of extreme rarity. From the Murchison Cabinet 1

8-5- 760 Another, the figure of the King very similar, but under the horse there is a large ball, m. m. fleur-de-lis; rev. oval Shield, garnished, showing lion's paws at the side, m. m. helmet, H. 503, extremely fine and rare 1

 See a paper in the 'Numismatic Chronicle,' vol. XII, p. 57, on this curious coin.

2-6- 761 Another, obv. very similar, but without the ball, rev. also very similar, m. m. lis on each side, and a lis separates the words of the rev. legend; the shield is also garnished with lis, and seems rather different from any described by Hawkins, fine 1

3-11- 762 Another still different, obv. very like the last, and same m. m., rev. m. m. helmet, an annulet between the words of the legend, garnished shield, fine and rare 1

3-10 763 Another, the figure of the King similar, but the horse stands on ground with grass, lis m. m., rev. crowned Shield with lion's paws in the garniture, legend FLORENT. CONCORDIA. REGNA. as on the gold coins, n. 505, fine and very rare 1

3-18 764 Another, the horse shows no mane in front, rev. a plain square-topped Shield crowned, at the sides C. R. crowned, m. m. a rose or cinquefoil pierced, H. 506, but no line under the horse, fine 1

 We have never seen any other specimen except this and the one in the British Museum described by Hawkins.

7-15- 765 Another, obv. very similar, m. m. a sceptre placed horizontally, rev. oval Shield with lion's skin garniture, like the York Half Crown, H. 498, m. m. as on obverse, H. 507, rare and in a beautiful state of preservation. From the Trattle, and Durrant Cabinets 1

766 Another, obv. the King on horseback, grass under the horse, m. m. lis, rev. crowned Shield of Arms, encircled by the garter, supported by the lion and unicorn, above, C. R. crowned, and below, the date 1645, H. 508, fine for this coin, which is rarely seen in even tolerable condition 1

767 Another, the figure of the King something like that on the 1643 Oxford Half Crowns, ground under the horse, rev. crowned Shield with drapery garniture, with C. R. at the sides, m. m. a small rose, and the words of reverse legend are separated by a small rose, seems to be unpublished, fine 1

768 Another, type as the early Oxford Half Crowns, m. m. plume on obv. only, A. under the horse, rev. Declaration type, date 1643, very rare 1

769 Another, obv. type resembling that of the Bristol Half Crowns, m. m. plume, and a small plume under the horse, rev. Declaration type, three plumes and a double scroll above, the date 1646 below, m. m. plume, Snelling, pl. 12, n. 9, very fine and scarce 1

770 Another of rude work, termed the Blacksmith's Half Crown, obv. m. m. cross, H. 499, fine and rare 1

771 Another, rather different, m. m. obv. cross, rev. harp, R. pl. 26, n. 5 1

772 Shillings, obv. crowned Bust, with plume in front, m. m. plume, rev. Oxford type, date 1645, A. beneath, rare and very fine, Snelling pl. 11, n. 34, but the obv. m. m. is there given as a Negro's head, probably from the engraving having been taken from a rubbed specimen 1

773 Another, obverse apparently from the same die as the last, rev. Oxford type, m. m. plume, scroll-ornaments and date 1646, as on the Half Crown, lot 769, very fine; Sixpence of similar type, but the m. m. is the letter B., H. 533, very well preserved 2

774 Groat and Threepence of the same type and date as the Shilling, the Threepence has only one plume on reverse, Snelling, pl. 11, n. 16, and H. 543, both highly preserved 2

775 Shilling, similar to that in the last lot but one, the m. m. plume on the obverse has evidently been altered from BR. in monogram, fine 1

776 Another, obv. crowned Bust with plain collar, the riband and badge are suspended, rev. oval Shield with drapery garniture, a large mullet separating the words; m. m. lion rampant, n. 8, of Hawkins' List described from this coin, well preserved 1

777 Another, obv. from the same die as the last, rev. similar to the last, but a lozenge separates the words, and the m. m. is a leaf between two quatrefoils of dots, H. 529, fine and rare 1

778 Another, a rude imitation of the Tower Shilling, with tun m. m., fine and rare; Two Groats of rude work, one an imitation of the Aberystwith type 3

779 Groat, obv. rose m. m., rev. helmet H. 539; Threepence, very similar, but m. m. lis on each side, unpublished, both very fine 2

780 Threepence, rev. square Shield without any cross, m. m. a sceptre lying down, as on the Half Crown, lot 765, R. pl. 26, n. 11, well preserved and rare 3

SEVENTH DAY'S SALE.

ENGLISH AND IRISH SIEGE PIECES.

LOT

781 Carlisle Three Shilling Piece, obv. CR. a crown above and III. below, rev. OBS[ESSA] CARL[IOLA] 1645, R. pl. 28, obv. as n. 5, rev. as n. 4; fine and extra rare 1

782 Carlisle Shilling, type very similar, but XII under the crown, n. 3; fine and rare 1

783 Colchester Shilling, obv. a castle struck on an octagonal piece of silver, with the legend CAROLI FORTVNA RESVRGAM, rev. incuse, octagon, 93 grs., R. pl. 29, n. 7; very fine and rare 1

784 A similar piece, but round, n. 8; very fine and equally rare 1

 Some of the specimens which occur of these pieces were struck in the last century, when the dies were in the possession of Dr. Gifford. They are thicker and heavier than the genuine specimens, and do not show the incuse reverse.

785 Newark Half Crown, Shilling, Ninepence and Sixpence, all dated 1646. Snelling, pl. 15, nos. 14 to 17; a fine set 4

786 Newark Shilling and Ninepence, dated 1645, and reading NEWARKE. The Shilling cut from a piece of gilt plate, the moulded edge of which remains unobliterated; all fine 3

788 A large Piece of the same type, but lozenge-shaped; wt. 152 grs., probably intended for a Two Shilling Piece; very fine, and rare, believed to be unpublished. From the Devonshire Cabinet 1

789 Pontefract Shilling, lozenge-shaped, type nearly like the last, but instead of the hand and sword there is P.XII.C., R. pl. XXIX. n. 11; very fine, and scarce 1

790 Another of similar type, but round; fine, and scarce 1

791 Inchiquin Crown, obv. the wt. 19 dwts. 8 grs. stamped in a beaded circle, rev. the same. R. pl. XXVII. n. 1; fine and rare 1

792 Inchiquin Half Crown, of similar type, stamped on each side, 9 dwt. 16 grs., n. 2; fine and rare 1

793 Inchiquin Shilling, of similar type, stamped on each side, 3 dwt. 21 grs.; fine and very rare 1

794 Inchiquin Sixpence, stamped on each side 1 dwt. 22 grs., within two beaded circles, not in R.; extremely rare and fine 1

795 Inchiquin Groat, obv. the wt. 1 dwt. 6 grs., rev. four annulets, R. pl. XXVII. n. 3; very fine, and of great rarity 1

796 Inchiquin Crown, with the value Vs. within a circle on both sides, n. 6 ; fine, and rare 1

797 Inchiquin Half Crown, with the value $\overset{\text{S.}}{\text{II.}}$ $\overset{\text{D.}}{\text{VI.}}$ within a circle on both sides, n. 7 ; very fine, and rare 1

798 The Rebel Crown, obv. a cross within a circle, rev. $\overset{\text{S.}}{\text{V.}}$ within a circle. R. pl. XXVIII. n. 2 ; fine and extremely rare 1

799 Cork Sixpence, obv. CORK. 1647, rev. VI. R. pl. XXVIII. n. 12 ; rare, and well preserved 1

800 Ormond Crown, Half Crown, Shilling, Sixpence, Fourpence, Threepence and Twopence, obv. CR. crowned, rev. Roman numerals denoting the value ; a fine set, the Twopence is rare R. pl. XXVII. nn. 7 to 14. 7

801 Ormond Crown, very fine, but appears to be plated ; and two Fourpences, varieties 3

802 Shilling, probably for New England, obv. NE. stamped in cypher, rev. a square stamp, with XII for the value. R. pl. XXX. n. 4 ; fine and very rare 1

CHARLES I.

GOLD.

803 Sovereign of first coinage, with Collar of the Garter, rev. square Shield of arms crowned, m. m. lis. R. pl. XIII, n. 1 ; fine 1

804 Half Sovereign of the same coinage, m. m. trefoil; extremely fine and rare in this condition. From the Martin Cabinet 1

805 Quarter Sovereign of the same coinage, m. m. lis ; very fine 1

806 Sovereign of second coinage, with the Ruff, but not the Collar of the Garter, m. m. castle ; finely preserved 1

807 Sovereign of same type, but m. m. anchor ; very fine 1

808 Half Sovereign of same type, m. m. negro's head. R. pl. XIII, n. 2 ; very fine, and scarce 1

809 Quarter Sovereign of same type and m. m., n. 3; highly preserved 1

810 Sovereign, of better work, rev. oval Shield of arms crowned, m. m. plume of feathers. R. pl. XIII, n. 4; very fine 1

811 Half Sovereign of same type, m. m. rose; fine 1

812 Sovereign, with falling bands, m. m. harp. R. pl. XIII, n. 5; very well preserved 1

813 Half Sovereign of same type and m. m., n. 6; very fine. From the Martin Cabinet 1

814 Quarter Sovereign of same type, m. m. triangle, n. 7; highly preserved 1

815 Another, m. m. crown; very fine 1

816 Angel, obv. St. Michael and the Dragon, rev. a Ship with the Royal Arms on the sail, m. m. castle, n. 8; very fine, and rare when in this condition and unpierced 1

Briot's Mint.

817 Sovereign, obv. crowned Bust of the King, with love-lock and lace collar, rev. crowned Shield of arms, m. m. anemone flower and B. R. pl. XIV, n. 1; extremely fine 1

818 Half Sovereign of similar type, n. 2; fine 1

Oxford Mint.

819 Three Pound Piece, obv. half-length Figure of the King in armour, holding a sword in his right hand and an olive branch in his left, a plume in the field, and also a m. m., rev. Declaration type, inscription in three scrolls, date 1642; highly preserved 1

820 Another, the figure of the King is larger, and of better work, rev. Declaration type and inscription in three scrolls, date 1643; very fine. From the Devonshire Collection 1

821 Another, the obv. from the same die, rev. of similar type, date 1643, with OXON. beneath, the words of the legends separated by roses, and roses before and after the date and value; very rare, and in beautiful preservation 1

822 Another. The coin is thicker and of less diameter, with date 1644 and OXON. below, but dots instead of roses on rev. S. pl. VI, n. 10; extremely fine and rare 1

823 Sovereign. The King's Bust half length, with sword and olive branch, rev. Declaration type, date 1642, no m. m.; a very rare type, not in R. or S., and in very fine condition 1

824 Another, the Bust shorter, date 1643 m. m. on obv. plume; well preserved 1

825 Another, type similar, lozenges between the words, date 1644 and ox beneath, m. m. plume on obv. S. pl. VI, m. 9; fine and rare 1

826 Another, of similar type, but the coin and the figure of the King are smaller, and there are dots instead of lozenges, date 1645; fine and rare 1

827 Another, obv. of similar type, but the work is neater, rev. the legend EXVRGAT. &c. commences at the top. Above the declaration legend is a single plume, and underneath the date 1646, ox; fine, and a rare type 1

828 Half Sovereign. Bust of the King in a laced collar, extending to the edge of the coin, rev. Declaration type, date 1643. R. pl. XIII, n. 11; very fine. From the Cuff Collection 1

829 Another of the same type, but a totally different Bust, something like the later pieces of the Tower mint. The legend commences at the top of the coin, m. m. plume on obv. only; believed to be unpublished 1

PATTERN IN COPPER.

PATTERNS IN SILVER.

831 Pattern for a Penny. Obv. Bust of the King with ruff, like the Shilling, H. 512, CARO. D. G. MA. BR. FR. ET. H. REX., m. m. an uncertain object like a flower, rev. oval garnished Shield of arms without legend, but CR. at the sides, wt. 7 grs.; unpublished, and in the finest state 1

 There is a specimen of this coin in the British Museum, which came from the Tyssen Cabinet, Lot 2903, and is there described as unique. It is, however, in very poor condition. We know of no third example.

833 Pattern for a Halfpenny, obv. and rev. a Rose crowned, C.R. at the sides, m. m. fleur de lis, obv. CAROLVS. REX., rev. A HALF.PENI. Snelling, pl. V, n. 19; very fine, and extremely rare. From the Durrant, Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

834 Pattern for Twopence, obv. a Rose, crowned; between, C.R., also crowned; below, the letter B., for Briot. Rev. similar type, but a Thistle instead of a Rose; and the date, 1640 below. Snelling's Pattern Pieces, pl. V, n. 20; very fine, and rare 1

 Fine, and probably unique, with the exception of the specimen in the Museum, which exactly resembles this one in appearance.

836 Pattern for Twopence, obv. bare Head of the King, rev. two C's interlinked; below, letter B, n. 22; fine 1

837 Pattern, obv. crowned Bust, CAR.D.G.MAG.BRIT.F.ET.H.R.; rev. a large Rose in the centre, CHRIS. AVSPICE. REGN. under the exergual line, VI.F. presumed to be intended for six farthings, n. 24, but that has V.F. in exergue; fine, and nearly unique, but has unfortunately been pierced 1

838 Pattern for Twopence, obv. bare Head to the right, CAR. D. G. ANG. SCO. FR. ET. HIB. REX., rev. a Rose surrounded with rays, FLOREBIT. IN. ÆVVM., m. m. a rose, n. 26; fine, and very rare 1

839 Another, obv. similar to the last, rev. REGIT.VNVS.VTROQVE., a sceptre and trident bound together, n. 28, but without the two C's crowned on rev., and the obv. legend is as n. 26; very fine and rare 1

840 Another, exactly like n. 28, well preserved and rare; and a Pattern for a Threepence, obv. crowned Head, rose behind the bust, m. m. bell; rev. round garnished Shield, with date 1634 above, SALVS. REIPVBLICÆ. SVPREMA. LEX., m. m. bell, n. 30; fine 2

841 Pattern for Groat, obv. crowned Head to the left, m. m. bell; rev. Arms in round decorated Shield, CHRISTO. AVSPICE. REGNO, n. 33, fine and scarce 1

843 Pattern for Threepence of very similar type, the Bust extends to the edge of the coin, and the value is III., the shield and date on rev. are similar, but the legend is SALVS., &c. as on the Threepence in the last lot but one, n. 31, but this differs in having the date; extremely fine and rare 1

844 Pattern for Twopence, type very like that of the groat; behind the head is the value II. surmounted by a rose, but without the D below; the legend is IVSTITIA. THRONVM. FIRMAT, no date; extremely fine, and unpublished, 1

845 Pattern for Penny, type like the Threepence, the bust extending to the edge of the coin, behind the head is the value I., with a rose above; rev. like the last, n. 23; very fine and of the highest rarity 1

 It is doubted whether any other private collection possesses a set of all the last four rare pieces.

846 Pattern for a Half Crown, obv. the King on horseback, as R. pl. XIX, n. 3; rev. garnished Shield of Arms, as n. 4; m. m. portcullis on each side of the m. m.; on rev. is an ornamental scroll, and the words are separated by a small rose wt. 238½ grains. 1

 This coin is of unusually large diameter, of the finest work and execution, perfectly circular, in the most beautiful state of preservation, and is believed to be unique. From the Dimsdale, and Durrant Cabinets.

847 Pattern for a Shilling, obv. crowned Bust of the king with lace collar, no inner circle; rev. oval Shield of Arms, with C.R. at the sides, no inner circle; m. m. on both sides a rose, of large size, struck in a collar and in very fine condition, unpublished and probably unique - 1

 From the Durrant Collection, and believed to have been previously in Benjamin Bartlett's, lot 52, 6th day.

 A singularly interesting coin, as stating in the legend that it is a pattern for silver money.

849 Pattern for a Sovereign, Half Crown or Shilling, obv. large Bust crowned, reaching to the outer edge of the coin, with titles beginning at the bottom, at the end, the letter B for Briot; rev. garnished square-topped Shield of Arms crowned, AVSPICIIS. REX. MAGNE. TVIS., at the sides of the shield C. R. crowned, above the crown the letter B. and date 1630; m. m. St. George piercing the dragon; Snelling, pl. 6, n. 1, in a beautiful state of preservation, and of the very highest rarity 1

 This exquisitely preserved pattern was formerly in the Tyssen Cabinet, and previously in that of Joseph Browne of Shepton Mallet. It is figured in Snelling's pattern pieces, pl. 6, n. 1, and is at page 48 described from this specimen, which Snelling states to be unique; a second example, however, was sold at this house on the 3rd of February, 1843, but it was in very bad condition. No other is known.

850 Pattern for Shilling or Sovereign, obv. Head and titles as in the last but one, but the head as well as the whole coin is larger; m. m. B; rev. garnished square-topped Shield of Arms, crowned, AVSPICIIS. REX. MAGNE. TVIS.,

at the sides of the shield C. R. crowned, above the crown the letter B. and date 1630; m. m. St. George piercing the Dragon, Snelling, pl. 6, n. 3; highly preserved and extremely rare. From the Trattle, and Cuff Collections, 1

851 Pattern probably for a Shilling, the King's Head to the right, crowned, with titles, under the bust the letter B; rev. crowned Shield of Arms surrounded by the garter, FIDEI. DEFENSOR. S. pl. 5, n. 36, R. pl. 22, n. 5; most highly preserved and very rare. From the Devonshire, and Durrant Cabinets 1

852 Pattern for Half Crown, obv. the King on horseback to the right, O. REX. DA. FACILEM. CVRSVM., in the margin N. BRIOT. F.; m. m. anemone flower; rev. ATQVE. AVDACIBVS. ANNVE. CŒPTIS, oval crowned shield of arms, 16 28 at the sides, S. pl. 6, n. 6, R. pl. 22, n. 2; very fine and rare. From Sir W. Bolland's Collection 1

853 Patterns probably for Shillings or Halfpennies, obv. of both, bare Head of the King, with titles; rev. of one, Sword and Olive Branch crossed, with C. R. crowned at the sides, IN. VTRVMQVE. PARATVS., date 1643, in exergue; of the other, three Crowns united by a band, VNITÆ * INVICTÆ *, a rose below; R. pl. 22, nos. 3 and 4; both very fine. From the Durrant Collection 2

PATTERNS IN GOLD.

854 Pattern for a Sovereign, obv. bare Head of the King to the left, with love lock, a lace collar over the armour, behind the head XX. for the value; rev. crowned Shield of Arms in high relief, at the sides C. R. crowned; m. m. on both sides, plume; exceedingly fine and rare, Snelling, pl. 6, n. 4. From the Trattle, Cuff, and Brown Collections, 1

855 Another, obv. bare Head of the King to the left, with love lock, a lace collar over the armour; rev. crowned Shield of Arms in high relief, on the sides C. R. crowned; m. m. on both sides fleurs-de-lis, very like the last except as to m. m., and there being no value behind the head; 157 grains, fine and rare. From the Thomas Collection 1

856 Another, the King's Head crowned to the left, with titles, behind the head XX for the value; m. m. plume; rev. very like the last two, but the initials are not crowned, and the m. m. a plume; the piece is thicker and of less diameter; S. pl. 6, n. 5; very fine and believed to be unique 1

 Probably from the Hollis Cabinet, to which Snelling refers.

857 Another, crowned Bust, with titles; m. m. B.; rev. square-topped, garnished and crowned Shield, with C. R. crowned at the sides, AVSPICIIS. REX. MAGNE. TVIS., above the crown the letter B. and date 1630; m. m. St. George and the Dragon; S. pl. 6, n. 3; extremely rare and very fine 1

 From the same die as the silver piece in lot 850.

COMMONWEALTH.

SILVER.

858 Crown, obv. Shield with St. George's Cross between branches of palm and laurel, THE. COMMONWEALTH. OF. ENGLAND., m. m. sun; rev. two Shields with St. George's Cross and the Irish harp, GOD. WITH. VS. 1652; V. over the shield; fine 1

859 Half Crown of similar type and m. m., but date 1651, and value II. VI.; exceedingly fine, like a Blondeau's, and looks as if struck for a proof 1

860 Shilling of same type and m. m., but date 1649, and value XII.; very fine 1

861 Another, similar, but date 1651; Sixpence, same type and m. m., but value VI; both extremely rare. From the Durrant Cabinet 2

PATTERNS IN COPPER.

2-- 868 Farthing, obv. a Shield with St. George's Cross, FARTHING. TOKENS. OF. ENGLAND., m. m. mullet of six points; rev. Shield with the Irish harp, FOR. NECESSITY. OF. CHANGE., 1649, m. m. as on obv. R. pl. XXXI, n. 13, and S. Copper, pl. VI, n. 2; fine, and exceedingly rare 1

1-16- 869 Another, obv. a Shield with St. George's Cross, a wreath above it, ENGLANDS. FARDIN.; rev. a Shield with the Irish harp, and a wreath above, FOR. NECESSARY. CHA. S. Copper Coinage, pl. VI, n. 4; very fine, and rare. In brass and copper 1

2-12- 870 Another, of similar type, but reading on obv. ENGLANDS. FARTHING.; and on rev. FOR. NECESSARY. CHAN. The letter K is within the wreath on each side. In brass, with a large copper stud in the centre; not in S. or R.; extremely fine, and rare 1

1-8- 871 Another, still different, in copper only. Appears to be the piece engraved from in Ruding, pl. XXXI, n. 15. From the Durrant Collection; fine 1

1-15- 872 Another, obv. three Pillars bound together, surmounted with the cross, harp and thistle, THVS. VNITED. INVINCIBLE., m.m. mullet; rev. a Ship in full sail, AND. GOD. DIRECT. OVR. COVRS., m.m. mullet. S. pl. VI, n. 7, but differs in the spelling, and has no R under the pillar; rare, and highly preserved 1

873 Another, obv. in three lines across the field, ∗THE∗ COMONS. PETICION.; underneath, the Irish harp and shield, with St. George's Cross. Rev. in three lines, ∗THE∗POORES. RELEFE.; below, the harp and shield, as in the obv., E. R. at the sides; almost unique, in fair condition. Boyne's Tokens, pl. XXXVI, n. 5 1

 Only one other known, which is in the British Museum.

874 Another, in pewter, obv. Shield with cross, ¼ OVNCE. FINE. PEWTR.; a wreath of roses above, with the letters T.K. Rev. Shield with the Irish harp, radiated, and wreath of laurel above, FOR. NECESSARY. CHANGE. R. pl. XXXI, n. 12; rare, and extremely fine, probably unique as to condition 1

875 Another of the same, but the Harp is not radiated. Snelling, pl. VI, n. 5; rare, and fine for this piece, which seldom occurs in good condition 1

PATTERNS IN SILVER.

876 Half Crown by David Ramage, obv. Shield with St. George's Cross, surrounded by two branches of laurel, THE. COMMON. WEALTH. OF. ENGLAND., m. m. mullet; rev. two Shields, with St. George's Cross and the Irish Harp, supported by an angel with spread wings, GAVRDED. WITH. ANGELES. 1651, m. m. mullet. On the edge TRVTH ∗ AND ∗ PEACE ∗ 1651. S. pl. VI, n. 10; wt. 305 grs.; very fine, and of the highest rarity. From the Barker, and Thomas Cabinets 1

877 Shilling, by David Ramage. Type obv. and rev. as the Half Crown, but the piece is thinner and the edge plain; wt. 93½ grs. Perhaps rarer that the former, and in the most beautiful state of preservation, having all the gloss of the die. S. pl. VI, n. 9. From the Tutet, Tyssen, Trattle, and Durrant Collections 1

 It has been said that the Half Crown and Shilling were struck from the same dies. It will, however, be seen that the obverses of these specimens (i. e. the side with the single shield) are from different dies.

878 Sixpence, by David Ramage, obv. Shield with St. George's Cross, TRVTH ∗ AND ∗ PEACE ∗ ; rev. Shield with the Irish harp, and same legend. The piece is struck thick, and has the same inscription repeated on the edge, with date 1651. S. pl. VI, n. 8; fine, and very rare 1

879 Half Crown, by Blondeau, obv. Shield with St. George's Cross, at the sides a palm branch and olive branch, THE. COMMONWEALTH. OF. ENGLAND., m. m. sun. Rev. two Shields, with St. George's Cross and the Irish Harp; above, II.VI.; around, GOD. WITH. VS. 1651; inscribed on the edge, TRVTH. AND. PEACE. 1651. PETRVS. BLONDÆVS. INVENTOR. FECIT., a palm branch before TRVTH., and after the date. S. pl. VI, n. 13; in the most beautiful state, and very rare. From the Devonshire Collection 1

880 Half Crown, obv. and rev. the same in every respect, but the edge inscribed IN. THE. THIRD. YEARE. OF. FREEDOME. BY. GODS. BLESSING. RESTORED. 1651. S. pl. VI, n. 14; equally fine, and perhaps rarer than the former. From the same Collection 1

881 Shilling, by Blondeau, of exactly the same type, but the value, XII, above the shields on rev., milled edge. S. pl. VI, n. 12; very rare, and highly preserved 1

∗∗∗ The only thoroughly fine specimen we have ever seen of this piece. From the Pembroke Collection.

882 Sixpence, by Blondeau, of exactly similar type, differing only in the value, VI, on rev., edge milled. S. pl. VI, n. 11; extremely fine and rare 1

Silver Coinage.

885 Another, similar, showing the flaw; also extremely fine 1

886 Another, called Tanner's Crown, taken from the die after it was repaired by that artist, plain edge; very fine, and rare 1

887 Another, similar, but with the inscribed edge; very fine, and rare 1

888 Another, from a different die, said to have been executed in Holland, and called the Dutch Crown, inscribed edge; very fine, and rare 1

889 Half Crown. Type and date exactly as the Crown, n. 5; a very fine specimen 1

890 Another, of similar type, but from a different die. The date is 1656, and the titles read H.I. instead of H.I.B. on the obv.; very fine, and rare, especially in this condition. From the Durrant Collection 1

891 Shilling, of similar type, date 1658, n. 7; highly preserved 1

892 Pattern for Ninepence. Type as the preceding, but without &c. after H.I.B., date 1658, plain edge; very fine, and rare 1

893 Another, struck on a thinner blank, nearer to the weight of a Sixpence; very rare 1

Gold.

894 Broad. Type as the Shilling, but the Bust is without drapery, and the date is 1656; milled edge. R. pl. XIV, n. 7; very fine, and rare 1

895 Half Broad, of similar type, but date 1658; fine, and of great rarity 1

1171 Patterns for Halfpenny by Droz, 1788, rev. Britannia with spear in her right hand; One Plated and one Copper, on the edge RENDER. TO. CESAR., &c., 1790, the spear in the left hand; One plain, with the inscription incuse, very rare; Two bronzed, one with the inscription, the other with wreathed and crenelled edge 5

1172 Pattern for Irish Halfpenny, obv. large Head with flowing curls, 1805; and a Proof of the Irish Halfpenny, 1782, both fine and rare 2

1173 Pattern for an Irish Penny by Mossop, obv. the bare Head of the King with a harp underneath, GEORGIVS. REX., rev. England and Ireland as two females joining hands over a flaming altar, CONCORDIA., date 1789, black-bronzed and edge milled, of the highest rarity, and in the best condition 1

 The late Dean of St. Patrick in his tract on the Medals and Medallists connected with Ireland (Transactions of the Royal Irish Academy, vol. XIX. part 1), states that only six of these Pieces were struck before the die was destroyed, two of the six being given to George III. himself. We know of only three or four.

1174 Pattern for Irish Penny, by Thomas Wyon, obv. the King's Head and titles, GEORGIVS. III. D.G. BRITANNIARVM. REX.; below, a rose and T. W. the initials of the artist, rev. the Irish harp surmounted by the crown, HIBERNIA., 1813, very fine and rare 1

1175 Another, with much larger Head, w. on the drapery, titles reading only GEORGIVS. III. D.G. REX., rev. as the last, gilt, highly preserved, and almost unique 1

1176 Another, obv. nearly similar, but without the initial, rev. nearly similar, but the crown is smaller and the harp different, Copper, unbronzed, equally fine and rare as the last 1

1177 Proof of the Irish Halfpenny, 1775, and a set of gilt proofs of the Penny, Halfpenny, and Farthing, 1805 and 1806, all very fine 4

1178 Penny and Halfpenny, 1805, and Farthing, 1806, for Ireland; two sets bronzed and plain, with a duplicate unbronzed Penny, all extremely fine 7

1179 Patterns for a Half Guinea, obv. the King's Head and titles, the hair long and flowing, rev. Arms, with the titles continued, date 1782, three specimens, one with edge plain; Another, edge milled; a third has the date MDCCLXXXII. four times repeated round the edge, all fine and rare 3

1180 Another very similar to the first in the preceding lot, but not so fine; Another with different Head, rev. as before, the edge dated as the last in the preceding lot, extremely fine and rare 2

1181 Patterns for a Guinea, obv. the King's Head and titles on a broad flat margin, rev. crowned Shield of Arms; on one the inscription and arms are incuse, gilt, both fine and scarce 2

1182 Impressions from the die of the Guinea, 1789, plain edge; 1813, milled edge 2

PATTERNS AND PROOFS IN SILVER.

1183 Pattern for a Shilling, by Tanner, 1764, plain edge, extremely fine and rare 1

1184 Another, with different Bust, by Yeo, 1778, plain edge, very rare and highly preserved 1

1185 Another, by Pingo, 1787, plain edge, without the dot, struck on a thick blank, wt. 115 grs., fine and rare 1

1186 Proofs of the last (with the dot), and of the Sixpence of same type and date, very fine 2

1187 Proof of the Halfpenny, 1770; and Pattern for a Guinea with Bust in high relief, rev. plain, both fine 2

1188 Pattern, probably for a Shilling, by Droz, obv. laureated Head to the right, 1787, rev. G. R. in cypher, with the crown above, milled edge, very fine and rare 1

1189 Pattern, probably for a Sixpence, obv. crowned cypher as before, rev. Britannia seated, the date 1781 in exergue; two others of similar device, but of rather smaller diameters, and the date 1790 is in the legend, one plain edge, the other milled, all fine 3

1190 Pattern for a Half Guinea, obv. laureated Head of the King to the right, in very low relief, GEORGIVS. III. DEI. GRATIA., rev. Arms in four incuse ovals, with abbreviated titles; in the angles, the date 1798 retrograde, edge milled, See Hawkins' paper in Num. Chron. vol. 13, p. 169, n. 115, from which however this piece differs, very fine and rare 1

1191 Pattern for a Crown, by Pistrucci, rev. laureated Head to the right, GEORGIVS. III., D. G. BRITANNIARVM. REX. F. D., 1817, rev. St. George and the Dragon, encircled by the motto of the garter on a plain band within a dotted circle, edge inscribed in small plain letters between milled edges, DECVS. ET. TUTAMEN. ANNO. REGNI LVIII., of great rarity and very fine 1

1192 Another by the same artist, obv. a very large Head of the King, legend as the last, but the letters are smaller, the date is 1818, and PISTRUCCI. is in minute letters under the head; rev. St. George and the Dragon within a garter, ruled with faint horizontal lines; edge plain, extremely rare and fine 1

1193 Pattern for a Crown, by Pistrucci, obv. very large Bust, with titles; rev. St. George and the Dragon, surrounded by the garter, which is filled up with horizontal lines, date 1818, the artist's name is under the head, plain edge, exceedingly fine and rare 1

1194 Another, like the last, but the edge is inscribed in large raised letters DECVS. ET. TVTAMEN. ANNO REGNI. LVIII., equally fine and rare 1

1195 Another, with Head like that on the Crown, struck for circulation, but the letters in the legend are much larger, and the garter in the rev. is ruled with horizontal lines as on the last two, extremely fine and rare 1

 The patterns in the last five lots are chiefly from the Cabinet of the late Mr. Hawkins. They were obtained by him from the family of Pistrucci.

1196 A most beautiful Proof of the circulating Crown of 1819, with inscribed edge, extremely scarce 1

1197 Pattern for a Crown, by William Wyon, obv. the King's Bust, the neck bare, W. WYON. beneath, with date 1817; rev. three Figures, personifying England, Scotland and Ireland, FOEDVS INVIOLABILE., plain edge, very fine and rare 1

1198 Another by the same eminent artist, obv. very similar, but the bust has the mantle, rev. a crowned Shield with the royal arms, INCORRVPTA FIDES VERITASQVE., plain edge, in the finest condition and rare 1

1199 Another, by Mills, obv. Bust and titles, rev. four Shields arranged crosswise, with the rose, thistle, shamrock and white horse of Hanover in the angles, and St. George in the centre, very fine 1

1200 Proofs of the Half Crown, 1816, Bust showing the shoulders; 1817, short Bust, very fine, with plain edges 2

1201 The same, but with the edges milled, equally fine 2

1202 Others, 1817, showing the shoulders; 1820, short Bust, milled edges, equally fine 2

1203 Pattern for a Shilling or Sovereign, obv. a small Head of the King in high relief, GEORGIVS. III. DEI. GRATIA., rev. Arms in a square shield, crowned, BRITANNIARVM. REX. FIDEI. DEFENSOR., no date, milled edge, very rare and fine. From the Cuff Collection 1

1204 Patterns for a Sixpence or Half Sovereign, obv. Head like the last, but in somewhat higher relief, and similar inscription, rev. Arms on an ornamented shield, surrounded by the garter, BRITT. REX. FID. DEI., 1816, milled edge, very rare and beautifully preserved. From the Cuff, and Murchison Cabinets 1

1205 Another, similar, but with plain edge, equally fine. From the Hawkins Cabinet 1

1206 Proofs of the Shilling and Sixpence, 1817, plain edges, very fine 2

1207 Proofs of the Shilling, 1820; Sixpences, 1816 and 1817, all milled edges, equally fine 3

1208 Pattern for a Bank Dollar, obv. Bust to the right, rev. crowned Shield of Arms, surrounded by the garter, 1804, fine 1

1209 Proofs of the ordinary Dollars for England and Ireland, 1804, extremely fine 2

1211 Proofs of the Bank Tokens for Three Shillings and One and Sixpence, 1811, very fine 2

1212 Proofs of Bank Tokens with the large Bust, Three Shillings, Eighteenpence and Ninepence, the last rare, all dated 1812, very fine 3

1213 Proofs, Ackey Trade and Half Trade, very fine 2

TENTH DAY'S SALE.

GEORGE III.

Patterns and Proofs in Gold.

LOT

1214 Pattern for Five Guinea Piece, by Tanner, with the young Head, GEORGIVS. III. DEI. GRATIA., rev. the Royal Arms on a garnished shield, titles continued from the obv., date, 1773, plain edge, in the finest state of preservation, and extra rare 1

1215 Another, of similar type, but with a very different head, the work of Yeo, date 1777, plain edge, a splendid specimen. From the Strawberry Hill, and Cuff Cabinets 1

 The rarest type of these patterns.

1216 Pattern for Two Guinea Piece, type very similar to that of the first Five Guinea Piece, date 1768, plain edge, very rare, and in the highest state of preservation 1

1217 Another, nearly similar, but dated 1773, plain edge, equally fine and rare 1

1218 Another, type like that of the second Five Guinea Piece, date 1777, plain edge, extremely rare, and in the most perfect state 1

1219 First Pattern for a Guinea, by Tanner, 1761, plain edge, very fine and rare 1

1220 Proof of Guinea, by Yeo, of fine work, 1761, plain edge, very fine and rare 1

1221 Another, with different bust, also by Yeo, 1763, plain edge, extremely fine and rare 1

1222 Another, still different, larger head, by Yeo, 1765, plain edge, in the finest state 1

1223 Pattern for Guinea, by Pingo, 1772, obv. Bust in high relief, of different and better work, rev. usual type of Arms, plain edge, extremely fine and nearly unique, the only other known specimen being in the British Museum. From the Hawkins Cabinet 1

1224 Another, rather different, 1774, plain edge, fine 1

1225 Another, 1787, and the Half Guinea, same type and date, both with plain edges, very fine 2

1226 Pattern for a Guinea, by Pingo, obv. Bust and inscription as the preceding, rev. Royal Arms in a circular shield, within the garter, 1787, edge plain, n. 39 of Hawkins' List in Num. Chronicle, vol. XIII, p. 120, extremely fine and nearly unique; we are not aware of any other specimen besides that in the British Museum. From the Murchison Cabinet 1

1227 Patterns for Guineas, in gilt metal, 1791 and 1798, small Bust, with incuse legends on broad flat borders, rev. Spade Shield, crowned 2

1228 Proof of Half Guinea, 1762, plain edge, very fine and rare 1

1229 Another, with different head, 1763, plain edge, fine and rare 1

1230 Another, nearly similar, but date 1764, plain edge, fine 1

1231 Another, different head, 1775, plain edge, extremely fine 1

1232 Pattern for Half Guinea, obv. laureated Head to the right, incuse, rev. Arms in four sunken ovals, cruciformly arranged, abbreviated titles, but no date, edge plain, extremely rare and very fine. From the Cuff, and Hawkins Cabinet 1

 See Hawkins' account of this pattern in vol. 13 of the Num. Chron. p. 168, n. 114.

1233 Pattern for Seven Shilling Piece, rev. Lion on a crown, 1776, plain edge, very fine; and a Quarter Guinea, 1762, not a proof 2

1234 Pattern for a Quarter Guinea, 1764, type as the Half Guinea of the same date, plain edge, highly preserved and rare 1

1235 Pattern or Jetton, obv. G. R., surmounted by a crown and branches of laurel at the sides, rev. Britannia seated, date 1791, fine and rare 1

1236 Proofs of the Guinea, Half Guinea and Seven Shilling Piece, 1813, milled edges, very fine 3

1237 Pattern for a Sovereign, by Thos. Wyon, obv. Head very like that in the preceding, rev. the Royal Arms on a flag, 1813, plain edge, wt. nearly 7 dwts., in beautiful condition and very rare 1

1238 Another, similar, but the edge is milled, wt. 149 grs., equally beautiful 1

1239 Another Pattern for a Sovereign by the same eminent artist, obv. a smaller Head of the King, w. below, rev. crowned Shield of Arms, decorated with the rose, thistle and a shamrock, the date 18-13, at the sides of the crown, plain edge, beautifully struck and preserved, and very rare 1

1240 Another, similar, but with milled edge, equally fine and rare 1

1241 Another Pattern for a Sovereign, obv. same as the last, rev. the Royal Arms in a square shield, crowned, the date, 18-13, at the sides of the crown, plain edge, exceedingly fine and rare 1

1242 Another Pattern for a Sovereign, by Wm. Wyon, the King's head in very high relief, w. w. below, the rev. is plain, and plain edge, extremely fine and of the highest rarity 1

1244 Another, with a large bust showing the shoulders, obv. GEORGIVS. III. D. G. BRITT. REX. F. D., rev. as the last, plain edge, equally fine and of the utmost rarity 1

1245 Another, obv. Head very like that on the Shilling, rev. Shield of Arms crowned, 1816, as on the last, of equal beauty and rarity 1

1246 Proofs of the circulating Sovereign and Half Sovereign, 1817, milled edges, extremely fine 2

1247 Pattern, by Pistrucci, for a Five Pound Piece, obv. a large Head of the King, GEORGIVS. III. D. G. BRITANNIAR. REX. F. D., 1820, PISTRUCCI. in minute letters under the head; rev. St. George and the Dragon without legend, but the artist's name repeated in small letters, edge inscribed DECVS. ET. TUTAMEN. ANNO. REGNI. LX., extremely rare, and in the finest state 1

1248 Pattern for a Double Sovereign, of similar type, but only B. P. on the rev., edge with same description as the last, rare and equally fine 1

1249 Pattern for a Half Sovereign, obv. Bust in high relief, GEOR. III. D. G. BRITT. REX. F. D., 1820, rev. the Rose, Thistle and Shamrock on one stem, surmounted by the CROWN, BRITANNIARVM. REX. FID. DEF., plain edge, extremely fine and extra rare 1

GEORGE IV. SILVER.

1250 Crown, by Pistrucci, rev. St. George and the Dragon, 1821, on the edge DECVS. ET. TVTAMEN. ANNO. REGNI. TERTIO., as fine as a proof 1

 The date on the edge is a curious anachronism. His third year did not commence until January, 29, 1822.

1251 Half Crowns, 1824, laureated Head; 1825, Head bare, by Wyon; Shillings, 1821, and two of 1825, all different types; Sixpences, 1821 and 1824, different, all fine 7

1252 Maundy Money, various dates, including the Threepence of 1822, with the small Head 18

Patterns and Proofs in Copper.

1253 Pattern for an Irish Penny, obv. laureated Head, rev. a small Harp crowned, 1822, fine and rare 1

1254 Pattern for a Penny, obv. as the preceding, rev. Britannia seated, holding an olive branch in her right hand, and a trident in her left, fine, and extremely rare 1

1255 Proofs of the Irish Penny, 1822, on this the Harp is large; Halfpennies, 1822 and 1823, all very fine and scarce 3

1260 Proofs of the Crown, Half Crown, Shilling and Sixpence, 1821, an extremely fine set, the edge of the Crown is inscribed with the error of ANNO. REGNI. TERTIO., the others have the edges milled 4

1261 Proofs of the Half Crown, same type as that in the preceding lot, 1820; Shilling, 1823; Sixpence, 1824, square Shield surrounded by the Garter 3

1263 Pattern for Shilling, obv. bare Head to left with titles, as on the Shillings of 1824-6 by Wm. Wyon, but it is within an inner circle; rev. Shield of Arms, with an ornamented band below; the whole within an inner circle, milled edge, very fine, and of the highest rarity, if not unique 1

1264 Pattern for a Crown, by Wm. Wyon, obv. bare Head, in high relief; rev. Arm in an ornamented shield, surmounted by the helmet and crown, 1825, plain edge, a beautiful specimen 1

1265 Half Crowns of the same type, 1824 and 1825, both fine proofs, with plain edges 2

1266 Crown, type as that in the last lot but one, but the edge is inscribed, and date 1826; Half Crown, Shilling, and Sixpence of same date, a very fine set; selected for the then Governor of the Bank 4

1267 Pattern for a Crown, by Wm. Wyon, obv. a very different bust from the last, in lower relief, GEORGIUS. IV. DEI. GRATIA. 1829; rev. the Royal Arms, surrounded by the collar of the garter, and displayed on a crowned mantle; the George pendent below, BRITANNIARUM. REX. FID. DEF., plain edge; extremely fine, and of the utmost rarity 1

 Only three of these rare pieces have ever come to the hammer; two (with plain and inscribed edge) in the Cuff Collection, which were both bought for the British Museum; the third in the Sainthill Cabinet, recently sold at this house.

1268 Another Pattern for a Crown, by the same eminent artist, obv. a Head more like that in the Crowns of 1825 and 1826, but broader, and the relief not so high, GEORGIUS. IV. D. G. BRITANNIAR. REX. F.D. 1828; rev. as the Crowns of 1825 and 1826, the edge inscribed in small letters DECUS. ET. TUTAMEN. ANNO. REGNI. OCTAVO., a floral ornament separating the words; this pattern is in copper, and is believed to be unique 1

1270 Patterns for a Half Crown and Shilling, called Colonel Fullerton's; the Half Crown is original, and in pewter; the Shilling in silver, but modern-struck; and a Proof of the Ceylon Rix Dollar, with plain edge, 1821 3
